

DIRECTOR'S CIRCLE

THE DIRECTOR'S CIRCLE IS THE IOP'S LEADERSHIP GIVING SOCIETY. IT INCLUDES BUSINESS AND CIVIC LEADERS AND OTHER GENEROUS INDIVIDUALS FROM ACROSS THE POLITICAL SPECTRUM WHO SHARE OUR DEEP COMMITMENT TO CONSTRUCTIVE POLITICAL DIALOGUE AND DEVELOPING THE NEXT GENERATION OF PUBLIC SERVICE LEADERS.

Annual gifts of $10,000 and above qualify donors for the Director's Circle. In return for this level of support, Director's Circle members are given access to exclusive benefits and programs that provide educational and personal enrichment, insight into important policy issues, and the opportunity to forge bonds with others who share their commitment. Benefits include:

- Invitation to attend annual Director's Circle event with David Axelrod, Institute of Politics Director;
- Preferred seating for you and a guest at IOP Speaker Series programs;
- Exclusive invitations to attend special IOP events with prominent speakers, IOP leadership, and students;
- Opportunity to direct your gift to underwrite a specific IOP program, including public service internships for students;
- Recognition in the University of Chicago's Chicago Society Honor Roll of Donors as well as special invitations to University programs and networking events.

To learn more about the Director's Circle and other giving opportunities at the IOP, please contact Marla Layton, Senior Director of Development at UChicago at 773-702-7343 or m Layton@uchicago.edu.